11. Approval in absolute merit:

11.1 The Jury shall deliberate on the candidate's approval or rejection in absolute merit, through a justified nominal voting where no abstentions are admitted.

11.2 Candidates who obtain a favourable vote of more than half of the voting Jury members are considered approved in absolute merit.

11.3 Candidates with a scientific and curricular experience which is relevant to the competition's scientific area(s) will be approved in absolute merit, also considering their suitability for the additional weighting criteria identified in point 15.5.

11.4 An unfavourable vote in absolute merit can still be justified on grounds of failure to fulfil the following circumstance:

- a) If the Scientific Project prepared by the candidate proves to be clearly insufficient and unfitting for the scientific area(s), suffering from serious inaccuracies or not supported by the previous work of the candidate.

12. In accordance to article 5 of the RJEC, the selection is made through the evaluation of the candidate's scientific and curricular experience.

13. The evaluation of the scientific and curricular experience of the candidate focuses on relevance, quality and topicality:

- a) Of the scientific, academic and cultural or artistic production of the last five years considered by the candidate to be most relevant;
- b) Of applied or practice-based research activities developed over the last five years and considered by the candidate as having the greatest impact;
- c) Of activities of extension and dissemination of knowledge developed during the last five years, in particular in the context of promoting the culture and scientific practices considered by the candidate to be of greater relevance;
- d) Of activities linked to management of science and innovation programs, or the experience in observing and monitoring the scientific and technological system or of higher education, in Portugal or abroad.

14. The five-year period referred to in the preceding point may be increased by the Jury, at the request of the candidate, when duly documented and justified on the suspension of scientific activity for socially protected reasons, namely, for reasons of parental leave, severe prolonged illness, and other situations of unavailability for work that are legally protected.

15. The evaluation criteria is set out in the current point, with the possibility set out in point 15.5, and giving particular emphasis to the curriculum vitae and the contributions considered of most relevance by the candidate in the last 5 (five) years:

15.1. Quality of the scientific, cultural or artistic production, considered most relevant by the candidate, and that is relevant for the project to be developed, which was given a 40% weighting factor, considering:

- i) Scientific publications: parameter which takes into account books, book chapters, articles in scientific journals and proceedings of international conferences of which the applicant was the author or co-author, considering:
 - Its nature;
 - Its impact;
 - The scientific level and the innovation;
 - Diversity and multidisciplinary;
 - International collaboration;
 - The importance of the contributions to the advancement of the current state of knowledge;
 - The importance of the works selected by the candidate as most representative, namely in regards to their contribution to the development and evolution of the scientific area for which the competition is opened.
- ii) Coordination and participation in scientific projects: parameter that takes into account the participation and coordination of scientific projects by the candidate, subject to competition procedures, considering:
 - The territorial scope and its extent;
 - The importance of the contributions;
 - Innovation and diversity.
- iii) Dynamization of scientific activity: parameter that takes into account the candidate's capacity for coordination and leadership of research teams.

15.2. Activities of applied or practice-based research, considered by the candidate to have the greatest impact, and relevant to the project to be developed; which was given a weighting factor of 25%, considering:

- i) Provision of services and consultancy integrated in the institutional mission: parameter that takes into account the participation in activities involving the public sector and the third sector, taking into account the type of participation, extent, diversity and innovation;

15.3. Activities of extension and dissemination of knowledge, especially in the context of the promotion of culture and scientific practices, considered by the candidate as being of greater relevance, and pertinent to the project to be developed, which was given a 25% weighting factor, considering:

- i) Publications for scientific dissemination: parameter that takes into account articles in national and international journals and conferences, and in other publications for scientific dissemination; considering their professional and social impact;
- ii) Services to the scientific community and society: parameter that takes into account the participation and coordination of scientific dissemination initiatives, and taking into account the nature and results achieved by them, when carried out together:
 - With the scientific community, namely through the organization of congresses and conferences;

- With the public sector and the third sector.

15.4. Contribution in activities of management of science and innovation programs, or experience in observing and monitoring the scientific or higher education system in Portugal or abroad, and relevant to the project to be developed, which has been given a weighting factor of 10%, considering:

- i) Undertaking positions at University departments, School departments or at the research unit;
- ii) Other positions: parameter that takes into account the undertaking of positions in national and international scientific organizations.

15.5. In weighing the evaluation criteria listed in paragraphs 15.1 to 15.4 each member of the Jury may consider the following additional parameters, under the following conditions:

15.5.1 Relevance and quality of the proposed scientific project in the scope of the Multiple Socialities and the Production of Space in Self-Constructed Environments;

16. The Jury may decide to select up to 3 (three) candidates, approved in absolute merit, who will be required to hold a session to present the results of their research, following which the Jury members should stimulate an open debate on their content and innovative character. This presentation session does not constitute a selection method and is not rated, aiming merely at obtaining clarifications or explanations of elements contained in the candidates' curricula.

17. When deemed necessary, the Jury may request the candidate to present additional documents substantiating the candidate's statements, which are relevant to the analysis and classification of the application.

18. Assessment of candidates:

18.1. Each member of the Jury assigns a grade to each candidate, based on each evaluation criterion, on a scale of 0-100, ranking the candidates according to their final classification, consisting of the sum of the partial scores assigned for each evaluation criterion, and taking into account the weighting assigned to each parameter.

18.2. Candidates are ranked based on the successive voting method laid down in Article 20 of the ULisboa Competition Regulations.

18.3. The Jury decides by absolute majority, and abstentions are not allowed.

18.4. The final classification of each candidate corresponds to the ranking that results from the application of the method referred to in point 18.2.

19. Minutes are drawn up by the Jury, containing a summary of the meetings, as well as the votes cast by each of the members and their justification. Minutes are made available to candidates whenever requested.

20. The final decision of the Jury is approved by the Rector. The responsibility for the contracting procedure is of the President or Director of the School.

21. False statements given by candidates shall be punished in accordance with the law.

22. The list of admitted and excluded candidates and the final classification's list are posted at the Lisbon School of Architecture of the University of Lisbon, Rua Sá Nogueira - Polo Universitário da Ajuda, 1349-063 Lisbon, and advertised on the electronic page of the FA-ULISBOA: <http://www.fa.ulisboa.pt>. The candidates are notified by electronic mail with receipt of delivery of the notification.

23. Preliminary hearing and deadline for final decision: after being notified, candidates have 10 working days to present their allegations. The final decision of the Jury is given within 90 days from the deadline for submission of applications.

24. The present competition is exclusively destined to fill of the indicated vacancy, and is able to be cancelled until the moment of approval of the list with the final classification of the candidates. The competition expires with the filling of the job position being offered.

25. Non-discrimination and equal access policy: the Lisbon School of Architecture of the University of Lisbon actively promotes a policy of non-discrimination and equal access, so that no candidate can be privileged, benefited, impaired or deprived of any right or exemption from any duty, namely given his/her ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family situation, economic situation, education, social origin or condition, genetic heritage, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, territory of origin, language, religion, political or ideological beliefs and trade union affiliation.

26. Under Decree-Law No. 29/2001, of February 3rd, the disabled candidate has preference in equal classification, which prevails over any other legal preferences. Candidates must declare on the application form their respective degree of disability, the type of disability and the means of communication or expression to be used in the selection procedure, under the terms of the aforementioned diploma.

27. The signature of the contract resulting from this procedure is conditional to the acceptance of the eligibility of costs arising therefrom by FCT, as well as to the conclusion of the respective addendum to the contract-program concluded between the IC and FCT.
